

TARAWEEG 20 SURVEY 18

UPDATE
VERSION 01
11 MAY 2018

PRODUCED AND PUBLISHED BY THE BOORHAANOL ISLAM MOVEMENT
IN COLLABORATION WITH THE MUSLIM VIEWS

All thanks and praises to the Almighty Allah for the conception, design and distribution of this Survey. This year's Taraweeg Survey represents a triumph of trust and collaboration over negativity that will assist all Muslims as they enter the holy month of Ramadaan. This inaugural supplement to the Muslim Views is a reinvention of the Taraweeg Survey that Cape Muslims have been familiar with for the past 30 years.

Yes indeed, the Taraweeg Survey first appeared way back in 1988, when the Boorhaanol team realised the need to document the diversity of mosque activities taking place during Ramadaan at the Cape. That first Taraweeg Survey in 1988 covered the basic information of a total of 76 mosques, and for the next 23 years it annually widened its repertoire of info on an increasing number of mosques, losing its independence in 2003 when it became a subsection of the annual Companion booklet.

In 2011 Boorhaanol once again produced a comprehensive Mosque Guide, featuring 168 mosques, led by 437 huffaath, of which 288 were full huffaath and 149 partially so.

This year's historic Taraweeg Survey was initiated by the Muslim Views Editor, Farid Sayed, who serendipitously approached Boorhaanol about a possible collaboration in publishing the Survey as a supplement to the Ramadaan issue of Muslim Views. Time was the main obstacle, and the Boorhaanol team has had to work around the clock to extract seemingly straight-forward information from the officials of all the mosques.

Unsurprisingly, a few mosques had not finalised their huffaath by the time of going to press 7 days before the start of Ramadaan. We apologise to readers for these omissions, but urge them to visit the Boorhaanol website at www.boorhaanol.org.za which will have all the latest updated information. This website also contains many interesting facts which were unearthed during the Survey.

We unreservedly apologise for any mistakes or omissions and urge readers to bring these to our attention so that they may be corrected on our website.

Finally we wish to express our sincere thanks and gratitude to all those who assisted us in whatever way in bringing this project to fruition.

INTRODUCTION

About this Electronic Version

By now you may have seen the Taraweeg Survey 2018 supplement in the Muslim Views distributed on Friday 11 May 2018. That we call Version 0. This, the first electronic version to be released is called Update Version 01. It contains mostly the pictures sent to us but we did not have sufficient time to include it in the printed version (MV Supplement).

This first Update therefore includes all the pictures and other information we received before Thursday 10 May 2018. We are sure you will spot omissions and errors, which we kindly request you bring to our attention in order for us to make these corrections and additions in the next update, which is scheduled for release on Wednesday 16 May 2018, the first night of Taraweeg salaah, Insha-Allah.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SCOPE

To our knowledge we have included all Masajid in the Greater Cape Town and Boland areas, but offer our apologies if any have been omitted. We would be grateful if such omission be brought to our attention for future surveys. We are also aware that Taraweeg prayers are performed at many madrassa complexes or other venues, but these have not all been included in the survey.

INFORMATION SOURCE

The information reflected has been obtained either from the officiating Imam or senior committee members of the masjid. Not all of the information was always available, especially information pertaining to the history of the masjid. An appeal is directed to members of the community who may be in possession of any missing information to contact us.

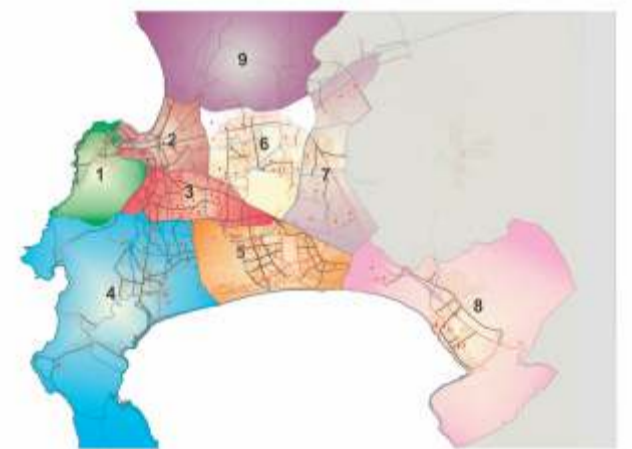

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to all who have provided information. The cooperation displayed by all of them is indeed very commendable.

PRESENTATION FORMAT

The format in which the information has been presented is fairly self explanatory. Note that the reference number used for each masjid reflects the chronological order in which the masjid have been established.

Taraweeg Information

1. The portion of the Quran recited per night in taraweeg salaah. Mosque that recite 1.25 Juz normally completes the Ghatam on the 27th Night. Those reciting 1 Juz completes the Ghatam on the last night of Ramaadaan.
2. The names of the persons leading taraweeg salaah (where the names change every year, the specific names have not always been provided). Note the prefix 'Gafith' has been reserved for those persons who have actually completed the memorization of the entire Quran. We also salute the endeavours of the other brothers who are leading Taraweeg salaah, many of whom have to date memorized vast portions of the Holy Quran, Alhamdulillah. We pray that their love for the Quran will motivate them to acquire the position of full Guffaath.

MAPS

The above map of the Peninsula shows the 9 regions in which the various masjid are located and presented in this survey.

On the opening page of each region a more detailed map of the region (except region 8, 9 and 10) indicating the location of each of the masjid. The reference number of the masjid has been indicated in the red dot.

About Boorhaanol

The Boorhaanol Islam Movement has been the pre-eminent community organisation in the Bo-Kaap for the past 50 years, combining religious educational initiatives with pioneering socio-economic upliftment programmes under the leadership of two of the area's most well-known sons, the late Imam Abdurahmaan Bassier and his close friend, the late social worker-cum-historian-cum-researcher Dr Achmat Davids. By the time that Imam had passed on in 2004 and the Boorhaanol had lost both its stalwarts, the emphasis within the organisation had shifted significantly towards achieving its educational and upliftment objectives via its publications.

While the quarterly Boorhaanol Newsletter had initially been produced primarily as a link between the organisation and its congregants, its scope was gradually enlarged to encompass both a larger readership as well as a wider agenda. This outreach to the broader community resulted in significant feedback and concern at the pressing issues confronting the Cape Muslim community in particular and the global ummah in general. The role of the Newsletter started embracing a research component as it was realised that the solutions to the problems within the community can only be properly tackled if it was based on accurate data about the resources and issues of the community.

Surveys on various aspects of both the human and the institutional resources were undertaken and published in the Newsletter and these projects resulted in a strengthening of the bonds between the Boorhaanol Movement on the one hand, and the various mosque, madrassah and institutional stakeholders on the other.

The death of Boeta Achmat Davids in 1998 was a huge setback not only for the Muslim community of Cape Town but the country as a whole. His intellectual output as a historian, linguist, researcher, social worker and broadcaster was phenomenal and his thesis proving that Muslims played a pivotal role in the genesis of the Afrikaans language shook the supremacist Afrikaner establishment. His departure also shook the Boorhaanol Movement to whom he had not only dedicated most of his adult life but at whose disposal he also placed his residence at 203 Longmarket Street right opposite the mosque.

Without Boeta Achmat the Movement had to regroup and soon thereafter they replaced their quarterly Magazine with an annual publication designed to provide Muslims with back-to-basics guidance on all aspects of their deen. In addition to these basic guidances, The Companion also contained a reference section wherein all the directories were consolidated. The need to look beyond the holy month of Ramadaan however, coupled with the mandate to preserve the cultural traditions of the Cape Muslims, led to the launch of the first Boeka Treats, a compendium of flop-proof Cape Muslim baking and cooking recipes traditionally made when Muslims break their fast. The popularity of the first Boeka Treats led to the scope of subsequent editions being widened to encompass all aspects of Cape Muslim cuisine.

BOORHAANOL Orphan Iftaar Programme

Over the mid-Ramadaan weekend every year, we host the orphans from all the Muslim Institutions in Cape Town for an excursion culminating with an iftaar (breaking of the fast) dinner. At the end of the evening they are presented with a wonderful Goody Bag. If you wish to make a financial contribution to this programme, see contact and banking details on page 17.

Special Boorhaanol Survey

In 2016 Boorhaanol conducted a special survey focusing on matters relating to the Imam's employment contract, his professional qualifications and registration as marriage officers. Boorhaanol also probed into the administration of Cape mosques, the representativity of women thereon and the extent to which mosques are registered as PBO's. Download these fascinating findings from our website at www.boorhaanol.org.za

Wishing all Muslims a blessed month filled with taqwah, eemaan and good deeds from
